INTRODUCTORY

The Michigan City Directory for 1909-1910, is the first issue published by this Company of Anderson, Ind. It presents no radical change, in general features, from other Directories, although many important changes have been made which makes the new Directory a very necessary book for the public.

We take great pleasure in presenting to our patrons the first Complete Directory of Michigan City, Indiana, and we trust upon examination it will prove satisfactory.

The publishers deem no further introduction necessary than the assurance that the present volume fully maintains the reputation for thoroughness and accuracy in every detail.

We desire to extend our thanks to the patrons and assure them that we will in our future publications, strive to keep our work up to the highest standard. We invite you to address us on all Directory Subjects for future publications.

Yours truly,

UNION DIRECTORY COMPANY,

Anderson, Ind.
